

NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY, KURUKSHETRA
DEPARTMENT OF HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCES
END TERM EXAMINATION AUG 2026

(B.Tech. 1st Year, 2nd Semester)

Subject: Communication Skills in English
Subject Code: HSIC 101

Maximum Marks: 50
Time: 03 Hours

Q1	Illustrate the end-to-end process of communication with a labelled schematic diagram. In your response, evaluate three distinct techniques for overcoming barriers to effective communication.	5
Q2.	Define Barriers to Communication. Examine four different types of barriers to communication that often interrupt the flow of communication or change/alter the intended meaning.	5
Q3.	Describe the fundamental skills that are required in learning a language and becoming proficient in it? Evaluate them based on how they shape human language and other skills that one can develop through the fundamental ones. (Discuss the use of Grammar and Vocabulary).	5
Q4.	Examine non-verbal communication through factors such as its difference from verbal communication, its use in day to day life. Additionally, outline two challenges that may impact non-verbal language.	5
Q5. (i)	Fill in the blanks with the most appropriate context-dependent verb forms. Each answer requires attention to tense sequencing and agreement. Neither the managing director nor the board members _____ (be) present at the emergency briefing when news of the acquisition was broke. Either the lead researcher or his team of assistants _____ (plan) to publish the findings before the international symposium commences next month. By the time the audit committee concludes its review next Thursday, the chief financial officer _____ (allocate) the remaining grant funds to the non-profit sector. Statistics, when _____ (analyze) through advanced machine learning algorithms, often _____ (reveal) patterns that the untrained analyst routinely overlooks. A series of high-level negotiations, alongside several informal discussions, _____ (be) currently taking place, though neither side _____ (have) conceded any key points yet. Rarely _____ (do) the CEO, along with her senior advisors, decide to overturn a unanimous vote made by the shareholders in recent years.	4
Q5. (ii)	Rewrite the following two complex sentences using correct subject-verb agreement and verb forms. Retain the meaning and complexity of structure. a) The rise in corruption, along with economic uncertainties, have created tension among the citizens. b) Not only the railwaymen but also the officials were unaware that the reports was manipulated.	2

Q5. (iii)	Each sentence below contains one grammatical error. Identify the error and write the corrected version of the sentence.	4
	- Neither the manager nor the employees was aware that the scheduled server maintenance had been postponed to next week. - Having finished the complex financial report, the computer crashed before she had a chance to save her work. - The new software tool is much more superior than the old system in terms of both processing speed and security. - If I would have known about the traffic closure on the highway, I would have taken the alternate route to the office.
Q6.	You are Kavya/Kavi, the Technical Events Coordinator of your institute. The annual Tech Innovation Summit has been delayed due to the unavailability of key equipment and lab facilities. Write a formal letter to the Procurement and Resources Section requesting approval for the revised event timeline, permission to use specialized labs after regular hours, and authorization to invite guest experts for workshops.	5
Q7.	You are Shambhavi/Sambhav Sharma, a 3rd-year B.Tech. Student in Computer Science and Engineering at XYZ Institute of Technology. You came across an internship opening for a Software Engineering Intern at InnovateTech Solutions, Bengaluru. Write a formal email to the HR Manager (hr@innovatetech.com) applying for the internship position. In your email, you must: - Mention the position you are applying for and how you found out about the opening. - Briefly highlight your academic background, relevant technical skills, and key projects. - Explain why you are interested in interning with InnovateTech Solutions. - Mention the attachment of your resume and request an interview. (Word limit: 150–200 words)	5
Q8.	Technical competence alone is insufficient for professional success.” Critically examine this statement with reference to the importance of soft skills in the workplace.	5
Q9.	Write a short note on any one of the following topics: (80-100 words) - Technical English - Proxemics - Body Language and its role in communication skills - Digital English - Spoken English as a dynamic discipline, with special focus on Gen-Z English on digital media platforms.	5